RESTORATION OF CIVIL LAW-AN IMPORT-ST CASE. - One of the most important quesjens which have arisen since the close of the gas came up in Judge Lyons's Court, in Richmond, on Wednesday, and the result of the accision of the learned Judge is, that under the President's peace proclamation civil law is once more supreme in Virginia.

The facts of the case as set forth in the apdication for a writ of habens corpus are as

'n January last, Mr. W. F. Brittingham, of Elizabeth City, Va., was arrested by order of the military authorities, charged with having grused the death of a negro man by shooting. Je was tried by a military commission, and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary, is which, at the date of the application, he sill lay. It appears that immediately after he sacoting referred to Mr. Brittingham reported all the facts of the occurrence to the commanding officer at Fortress Monroe. An ovestigation was ordered, and Mr. Brittingnam was acquitted of all blame and permitted and been granted, Mr. Brittingham war arrested by order of the Freedmen's Bureau and sentenced to the penitentiary, as above stated. The applicant claimed that he was a civilian at the time of the arrest, trial, conviction, and centence; that he was not subject in any way eary law, and that as the President had of oclamed the return of peace and the restoralion of civil authority he was entitled to a trial in the civil courts for any offence that he might have committed. He therefore prayed that a writ of habeas corpus be issued requiring the superintendent of the penitentiary to produce him before a civil court for inquiry

Accordingly, on Wednesday young Britting-ham was brought before Judge Lyons, and his application heard through his counsel, General Henry A. Wise. Mr. Marmaduke Johnson, is the absence of Mr. N. A. Sturdivant, attorney for the Commonwealth, acted in his stead. her argument the court decided that under the statutes it could only order that the prisoner be released from the penitentiary and turned over to a magistrate. The court had to take police of the fact that a homicide had been committed, and on this account the accused must be examined in pursuance of the regular coarse of the law. True, it was alleged that the homicide had been committed in selfdefence, but then this must be proven, and that before the proper court. He would therefore order the prisoner to be turned over to the Mayor of the city, who would examine the case, and, as he thought just, send him to the authorities of Elizabeth City, or release him.

In pursuance of the order of the court, young Brittingham was carried to Mayor Mayo, who bailed him in the sum of $500 for his appear tace before him next morning.

COMMUNICATED. Truly amusing it is to see how ambitious Forthern emigrants to the Southland are of being considered Southerners. Apply the term "Yankee" to them and they at once regard it as an insult, instead of being proud of their own name, and thanking you for the compliment. Zind a man, woman or child, born on Southern ceil, anywhere on God's green foot-stool, and Dride and self-congratulation, they will tell you: "Fam a Southerner!" with an emphasis that draws a broad line of demarkation between the two sections. A Yankee will say, in foroign lands: "I am an American," leaving you o find out whether from the Gulf of Mexico or close upon Canada. Ask him why his latitude so large, and he will tell you: "I am a partiot." I love my whole country." A 'patriot. then, was born all over the country, and has no sectional or State pride. No Southern man, then, is a 'patriot, (for they will boast of locality.) and for this reason, I suppose "D. W.
